

Recommendation Letter: Abolghasem Amiri

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to recommend Abolghasem for a position within your organization. Abolghasem joined my team in May 2025, as a Senior Specialist, and during his tenure, he has proven to be an invaluable asset to our 4PL operations, consistently delivering high-quality results in a fast-paced environment.

What sets Abolghasem apart is his innate self-motivation and ownership. From day one, he demonstrated a deep desire to understand the "why" behind our processes. He is never afraid to ask the right questions - not just to complete a task, but to master the scope. This curiosity makes him incredibly effective at gap analysis; when an issue arises, Abolghasem doesn't just fix the immediate problem - he proactively identifies the root cause and implements preventative measures to ensure long-term efficiency.

Key strengths Abolghasem will bring to your team include: Versatility & Fast Learning: He actively seeks training across different scopes, allowing him to support the team wherever the need is greatest; High-Volume Management: Once he has mastered a process, his operational output is exceptional. He handles large volumes of work with precision and a senior-level focus; Relationship Management: In the 4PL world, communication is everything. Abolghasem excels at building and maintaining professional, respectful relationships with both internal colleagues and 3rd-party partners. Team Culture: Beyond his technical skills, Abolghasem is a true professional who contributes to a positive, collaborative team environment.

Abolghasem was an excellent addition to the team, and as he moves on to pursue new professional challenges, he leaves behind a legacy of efficiency and collaboration. I highly recommend him to any organization looking for a dedicated, high-performing specialist.

Recommendation letter

Dear Sirs,

Mr. Abolghasem Safarzadeh Amiri worked at our company between 11/27/2022 and 02/03/2025, performing the role of Industrial Logistic Assistant. Throughout this period, he performed all his activities efficiently and professionally.

The reason why he is no longer part of our Company was due to a restructuring within the scope of ongoing projects, resulting in a reduction in human resources.

Therefore, I come through this recommendation letter to reaffirm our certainty that some of his greatest qualities are: competence, honesty, capacity and suitability. so we understand that it is our obligation to recommend him as a great hire for your company, in which will certainly have a lot to add...
